

Chris Krstevski

Community Services Commission

City of Temecula

Biography:

Chris Krstevski has lived in Temecula since 1995. Upon graduating from Temecula Valley High School in 1997, Chris pursued higher education in San Diego, ultimately earning his Bachelor's Degree in Social Science and Master's Degree in Public Administration from San Diego State University.

A passion for public service, recreation, and the outdoors have led Chris to a career in Parks and Recreation management with the County of San Diego and, most recently, the City of Escondido. Chris is a Certified Parks & Recreation Professional (CPRP) through the National Recreation and Parks Association and strives to enhance the quality of life of his constituents and local community by developing unique, safe, and sustainable parks, facilities, trails, events, and programs. As a steering committee member of the local non-profit, Bike Temecula Valley, Chris enjoys looking for ways to promote active transportation and make safe and connected routes for people to hike, jog, and bike around town.

Chris currently lives in Temecula with his wife and three kids. The Krstevski family can often be found enjoying Temecula's wonderful parks, trails, and amenities, or participating in a variety of recreational sporting events and programs.

