

Eric Levine

Community Services Commission

City of Temecula

---

Biography:

Eric Levine first became involved with the City of Temecula through his children and their activities. They attended Summer Day Camp and his daughter took a few contract classes. He frequented Temecula's various parks and sports venues as his son played basketball and soccer, and Eric coached his flag football teams. When his son joined Cub Scouts in 2011, they took part in parades and attended their first Pinewood Derby at the Rod Run.

Eric and his wife Erin strongly believe in supporting the community through service. His family has participated in many service activities through multiple organizations. He was honored to be appointed to the Community Services Commission in 2015.

A San Diego native, Eric and his family relocated to the Temecula Valley area in 2005. Working nearly 30 years for one of the country's leading health care providers, he is responsible for the strategic planning and execution of enterprise IT operations in Southern California. He is a graduate of San Diego State University and later earned his MBA.
