

Juan Del Val

Old Town Local Review Board

City of Temecula

Biography:

Juan Del Val moved to Temecula in 2001 with his wife. They were drawn by the friendly community and open spaces and bought their first house in Temecula. Since then, they have had 3 children that now attend Temecula Preparatory School. Juan and his family enjoy all that Temecula has to offer and are especially fond of Old Town. Juan and his family regularly visit the Old Town Farmers Market on Saturday mornings as well as the local restaurants and shops in Old Town.

Juan has worked in the public sector for over 20 years and is excited to be serving his community as a member of the Old Town Local Review Board. He understands the value and historical significance of Old Town to the City of Temecula and looks forward to assisting in maintaining the historic district.

